BLUE DIAMOND TRAVEL

Optional Petra Extension

February 23–25, 2027 | U.S. arrival February 26

Extend The Israel Experience with three days in Jordan and southern Israel. Space is limited, and the program is subject to border operations, site availability, weather, and local conditions.

Extension price	$1,950 per person, double occupancy
Private room	+$600 per person

What Is Included

Scheduled meals, lodging, ground transportation, border transfers, entrance fees, taxes, and standard gratuities are included. Airfare, personal purchases, beverages not otherwise included, and travel insurance are not included.

Extension Itinerary

Tuesday, February 23, 2027

Main-group flights arrive in the United States. Petra Extension travelers cross into Jordan at the Jordan River/Sheikh Hussein border, visit Mount Nebo, and continue to Petra for an overnight stay at the Mövenpick Resort Petra.

Wednesday, February 24, 2027

Explore Petra, with a horse ride where available, then continue to Wadi Rum for a desert jeep tour. Overnight at the Mövenpick Resort & Spa Tala Bay Aqaba.

Thursday, February 25, 2027

Cross into Israel at the Arava border, visit Timna Park, and transfer to Ben Gurion Airport for an overnight flight to the United States.

Friday, February 26, 2027

Petra Extension flights arrive in the United States.

Payment and Registration

Select the Petra Extension and any private-room request on the registration form. The regular $500 deposit and payment schedule apply; no separate Petra deposit is required. Fifty percent is due November 13, 2026, and the remaining balance is due January 13, 2027. The same cancellation terms and credit-card fees apply.

Travel Documents

Travelers must meet the entry requirements for both Israel and Jordan and carry their passport during the border crossings. Blue Diamond Travel will confirm the current requirements and border procedures before departure.